Internship Program Admissions

Date Program Tables are updated: 8/27/2020
Briefly describe in narrative form important information to assist potential applicants in assessing their likely fit with your program. This description must be consistent with the program's policies on intern selection and practicum and academic preparation requirements:
Admission to the Psychology Internship is open to qualified individuals. Applicants must be enrolled in a Ph.D. or Psy.D. program in clinical, counseling, school, or combined (within the three disciplines of clinical, counseling, and school) psychology from an accredited university and have completed at least three years of graduate work. Applicants are expected to have sufficient academic background in child clinical psychology to be able to utilize the experiences offered. This includes theoretical and applied familiarity with various instruments used in psychological evaluations, as well as an understanding of child development and therapeutic modalities. By the beginning of the training year, interns are expected to have a good working knowledge of the following assessment domains: Intelligence, Achievement, Personality, Behavior, Adaptive, and Projectives. Due to COVID-19, Applewood this year does not require applicants to have received a minimum number of hours at the time of application. In previous years, there was a minimum requirement of 450 Intervention Hours and 125 Assessment Hours
Does the program require that applicants have received a minimum number of hours of the following at time of application? If Yes, indicate how many:
